Meg Mabbs and Bill Gooch love to dance and sing. They have taught and performed recreational Scandinavian and Balkan dance for over 30 years. Their dance research, study, teaching, performing and most of all, fun-seeking have carried them to many workshops and camps across the USA and in Denmark, Norway, and Sweden.

MEG is a founding director of Nordic Fiddles and Feet (2001), a week-long Swedish and Norwegian traditional music and dance camp for kids, families, and adults. She was particularly instrumental in developing the singing program for NFF. She is a retired piano teacher with outstanding music pedagogy training and experience who enjoys guiding individuals towards musical success. BILL is the author of "Glad I att Dansa", a book of nearly 200 traditional Swedish dance descriptions used as a resource for the Swedish dance community world-wide. PICS

Students from Sacred Heart Cathedral School are all smiles after completing the Optimist Oratorical Contest at their school. Be at The Foundry Friday 23 March 2018 to see their school winners compete in our club contest.

Knox County Administrator of Elections CLIFFORD RODGERS received a copy of The Optimist Creed and an application for membership from President BETH O'BRIEN. CLIFF was introduced by BUDDY RIMMER, serving as Chairman of the Day.

President BETH was full of good news. The Oratorical Contest is shaping up nicely. She had a preview at the Sacred Heart Cathedral School contest. Be sure to get to the club as early as close to Noon (or before) on Friday 23 March.

BETH and TOM hosted a Member Orientation at their home. New members attending included CHRIS ALBRECHT, BARBARA BOULTON-BUDLONG, DELORIS MABINS, TIFFANY SHERRILL and CARY WIEDMAN,

CHRIS COX is our President-Elect. He will take office on 1 October 2018. In preparation for that role, he is charged with identifying the people who will chair the projects and programs for the coming Optimist Year. He said, "The Sunny Side" roster of officers and committee chairs reveals an incredible wealth of volunteer dedication to our Club. Interested in a leadership position? Got a Committee that interests you? Please let CHRIS know. Over the coming weeks, he will seek you out if you do not come to him

DAN GREEN wants you on the trip to Keeneland in Lexington, Kentucky; it is a fun and fund raiser for our Optimist Club. DAN says it is a day trip to the races on Sunday 22 April 2018. For $99 you receive admission to Keeneland, travel via luxurious Gentry coach, snacks, wine, beer and great fellowship. Bus leaves Land Oak offices in West Knoxville at 8:30am and returns to the same location 9:00-10:00pm the same day. Contact DAN GREEN (865) 567-2420 or dan(at)dangreenrealtor(dot)com

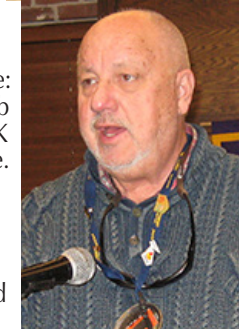

BUD McKELVEY brought a check the Optimist Club of West Knoxville received as payment for delivering the Annual Report for the Town of Farragut. The Optimist Club of West Knoxville is turning in its Charter and several members are joining with us. Our Board has pledged to conduct the service projects through which our fellow Optimists served their community youth. Two of these projects involve The Angel Tree and Camp Eagle's Nest - sound familiar?

Sergeant-at-Arms JIM BLACK went "retro" last Friday and fined those not wearing their Optimist Pins. There was a good amount of orange clothing in the room - either in support of the Vols Men's Basketball team or in hopes that Sarge would fine those without orange!

Editor BUZZ BUSWELL brought a paper copy of The Sunny Side to the meeting as many recent inductees have never seen the actual print version we mail to a couple dozen members. Those subscribers do not see the full color photos; settling for black and white images. There are three ways to see each and every issue: snail mail; a full 1mb file via email; a LINK to our club's website. You choose!

The orientation at BETH and TOM'S house was facilitated by BETH, DAN McGEHEE, ANNIE LaLONDE, KATHRYN McCULLOUGH and your Editor.

The Optimist Creed

- PROMISE YOURSELF . . .
- TO be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
 - TO talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.
 - TO make all your friends feel that there is something in them.
 - TO look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
 - TO think only of the best, to work only for the best and to expect only the best.
 - TO be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
 - TO forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
 - TO wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
 - TO give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
 - TO be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
